Idaho News

By the Montanian of the 24th, we have the following, taken from the Boise Statesman of the 18th:

Mr Dover and another gentleman arrived in town from Rocky Bar Sunday afternoon, bringing the news that D. C. Updyke and Jake Dixon were hanging at Syrup Creek. Mr Dover and his companion camped at Syrup Creek about dark on Saturday night and had occasion to go down to the house, a short distance, and were surprised at finding no one living there but Updyke suspended in the shed between the two houses. On the body was pinned the following card:

DAVE UPDYKE,
The aider of Murderers and Horse Thieves.
XXX

The discovery had the effect to make their camp a lonesome one for that night. Coming on the next morning they learned that Jake Dixon was also hanging to a tree a few miles down the creek. They could not tell how long the bodies had been there. Justice Kline started yesterday morning for Syrup Creek for the purpose of properly disposing of them. Monday morning the following card was found posted on Mains street, written in the same handwriting as the one found on Clark a week ago:

DAVE UPDYKE,
Accessary after the fact to the Port Neuf stage robbery.
Accessary and accomplice to the robbery of the stage near Boise City in 1864.
Chief conspirator in burning property on the Overland stage line.
Guilty of aiding and assisting West Jenkins, the murderer, and other criminals to escape, while you were sheriff of Ada county.
Accessary and accomplice to the murder of Raymond.
Threatening the lives and property of an already outraged and suffering community.
Justice has overtaken you. XXX

JAKE DIXON
Horse thief, counterfeiter and road agent generally.
A dupe and tool of Dave Updyke. XXX
All the living accomplices in the above crimes are known through Updyke's confession, and will surely be attended to.
The roll is being called. XXX.

The late express from Blackfoot brought down quite a liberal installment of dust. At A. Frank & Co.'s we had the pleasure of examining a purse containing about one hundred ounces of the ore. Like all the gold we have seen from Blackfoot, it was quite coarse—many of the pieces weighing from $2 50 to $5. From this time forth we may expect a golden stream from Blackfoot to set steadily this way.

FROM THE UPPER COLUMBIA.—From General James McAuliff, the Walla Walla Statesman learns the following:

The steamer "49" was all ready to take her place on the route to the Big Bend mines and was expected to start on her first trip on Saturday last, the 14th. She is pronounced by those who have examined her, a fine boat, and fully equal to the requirements of the trade. Capt. Len White, the Purser, and the whole crew were on the ground, and it is quite certain the boat started at the time stated. Parties who have been hurrying flour through to Colville paying exorbitant freights, are in bad luck, it being difficult to realize charges. In the Colville market flour is quoted at $14 per hundred—but when sold in large quantities $12 is the ruling rate. The road to Colville is in bad condition, animals frequently miring down, and the trip attended with many delays. General Mc was more fortunate than many others, and yet he pronounced it a "hard road to travel." At Colville there were three stores doing a healthy business, and at the landing two more mercantile establishments, both having a fair trade. At Little Dalles, which is to be the landing place of the steamer, it is expected that a little town will spring up. All through the country the settlers are hopeful and calculate upon great things from the Big Bend mines.

The trial of Thomas Donahue, at Walla Walla, charged with the murder of Ferd. J. Patterson, occupied the Court for four days. The evidence for the prosecution was, we think, clear on the charge of murder. The jury was out from four o'clock P. M. on Wednesday until Thursday afternoon, but could not agree. They stood seven for acquittal and five for conviction. The case will probably be tried again the present term of Court.

FORGETFULNESS INVOKED.—The New York News appeals to the American people to forget all past issues. It says:

> Our countrymen are excitable, and yield readily to their impulses, but they resume with equal facility their equanimity. The great civil war that convulsed their land is regarded by them as any other event in history, belonging to the past, and only to be viewed as a lesson of experience, or a fireside tale of wonder and meritorious. None except politicians who cling to past issues for political capital, and fanatics who cannot bear to part with their darling idols, still care to brood over the dismal past or nurse the passions or resentments engendered in those evil days.

We do not wonder that these rebel sympathizers desire to have their last five or six years' record buried in oblivion as quickly as possible. Its damning pages blast their eyes when they re-read it—but read it, they must. The American people can never forget an issue, the settlement of which, cost them a million of fathers, brothers and sons.

THE DISQUALIFICATION REMOVED.—It will be recollected that Jo Smith could not get the nomination for Congress at the "Jones" Convention in this city, because he is a member of the Methodist Church. A few years ago O'Fay would have been disqualified for the same reason. We have it from credible authority that he joined the M. E. Church at Corvallis six or seven years since and that he was baptized on that occasion. But as he has since returned to his original habits, behaving so badly that the Church had to excommunicate him, we suppose that the disqualification under which he was temporarily placed may be said to be removed.

A COPPERHEAD INUENDO.—The Herald, forced at last to confess that Mr. Collector Adams, whom it had vilely abused and infamously traduced, is an honest man, kindly says:

> It will be recollected that we expressed our belief that Mr. Adams did not take the money.

Indeed! How very kind, how exceedingly generous to throw out that most damaging insinuation against a man that you scarcely believe him a thief. Such a remark is hardly less injurious than a direct accusation of dishonesty. Suppose we were to say: "As we are not much acquainted with the editor of the Herald we are not prepared to accuse him of theft or perjury?" This remark would be exactly in the spirit of the Herald's insinuation against Mr. Adams.

THE STEAMER ON SNAKE RIVER.—Howard Bledsoe, Messenger of W. F. & Co., favored us with the light of his countenance last Sunday, it being his first trip to this place this spring.

He reports the new steamer on Snake river to be nearly completed. She will run between Olds' Ferry, which has been removed twelve or fifteen miles down the river, and a point on Snake river, about thirty miles from Boise City and thirty from Owyhee. The landing will be about 75 miles from Idaho City. The steamer will run higher up the river for the transportation of government freight when required. A landing will be made near the mouth of the Payette for the convenience of passengers and freight for this Basin. The steamer will be a convenient for the transportation of [illegible], but probably will not much interfere with the stage transportation of passengers from this section of the country to Portland.—Idaho World, 14th inst.

The Mississippi has at length cut a channel through Terrapin Neck in the vicinity of Vicksburg, by which the river is shortened some fifteen miles. This has been expected for years. It is gratifying to steamboat men, but disastrous to the plantations below Vicksburg.

'Me and the People'

The country has ceased to hope for dignity moderation or sobriety of conduct in President Johnson, therefore, his ill tempered harangues now attract but very little attention, and certainly are no longer the occasion of any deep feeling or considerable excitement among the people. The conclusion has been gradually forced upon the loyal masses of the country, that President Johnson will not be their agent in gathering and securing the invaluable results of the late momentous struggle, and that they will have to complete this work without his assistance, and perhaps in deadly opposition to all the influences he can wield. The struggle still goes on between the friends and foes of the grand principle of "equality before the law." That the advocates of human rights will triumph at last is as certain as that the Government will stand. In opposing the majority in Congress, President Johnson opposes the party which, by having preserved the Republic, has established its claim to govern the country on the principles of loyalty and of equal and exact justice to all men. It avails him nothing to assert in endless iteration that he is contending for the rights of the people, for wherever elections are held the people answer back that they do not sustain him. "Me and the people," a favorite expression with the President, are not one and the same. This has already been demonstrated. It has been demonstrated further, that the people do not consider egotism, presumption and headiness the only qualifications necessary for a President of the United States. Mr. Johnson's late speech makes only about half a column in the newspapers, yet, "I," "myself," "me," "my plan," &c, occur in it not less than half a hundred times. The "me" is the conspicuous figure in the performance. "The Congress is composed of traitors; I, Andrew Johnson, and the sole defender of the liberties of the people. That convocation of traitors is bent on the destruction of the Republic; I, Andrew Johnson, forbid. Thank God, I am your President, and I intend to assert the power which is in my hands."

Who, on reading this speech will not be ready to exclaim with Cassius:

> "Ye gods it doth amaze me,
> A man of such a feeble temper should
> So get the start of the majestic world,
> And bear the palm alone!"

Mr. Johnson is surely under the influence of a political madness. What can he expect to accomplish by such speeches as he is making, except to unite more firmly against him all who disapprove of his "policy?" The cant of "me and people" lost all its potency in other days, and is not now sufficient political capital for the ambitious to build upon.

State Items.

The Statesman says: "Two fine horses were stolen from the place of A. Bush, near this city last week. We have heard of two or three horses being stolen in the county during the past ten days. Look out for your horses, the 'gang' are evidently in running condition again."

The Union Convention of Columbia county met at St. Helens on the 19th inst. E. W. Conyers was elected a delegate to the Joint Convention with Clatsop and Tillamook to be held May 5th, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Joint Representative. The county ticket nominated is as follows —County Judge, B M. Watts, Clerk, F. Dillon Holman; Sheriff, T. H. Taylor, Treasurer, Phillip Laffer, Assessor, C E. Philbrook, School Superintendent, E W. Conyers, Surveyor, Andrew Alson; Coroner, J R. Majors

We learn from the Mountaineer that Major Miller, of the 14th U S. Infantry, reported killed by Indians in Arizona, was a brother-in law of Judge Wilson. He will be remembered by the residents of Salem of 1864-5 6. We think he was at one time a clerk in the Surveyor General's office, and in 1865 was elected to the office of Assessor of Marion county. He was then quite a young man, but gifted with rare traits of mind, a remarkable memory of men, facts and events, and a genial disposition which made a friend of every acquaintance

THEIR STYLE.—In the Democratic journal of this city, on Saturday last, we read what purports to be the argument in mitigation, of the counsel for the defendant in the case of the State vs. Burns. It is a high toned tirade in favor of pistols and fisticuffs as a means of redress for newspaper comments.

Suppose Collector Adams applies this rule to Burns, his ponderous attorney, and his lacquey newspaper publisher. Everybody knows who has ever come within the sound of the powerful attorney's voice, that he has made his peculiar haunts ring with the meanest of spoken libels concerning the Collector. And the "venal motive"—we thank thee, weighty attorney, for teaching us this term—a fee from Burns and his California masters makes it worse

When the Collector was robbed, these masters and owners hired the scavengers of the press—the organs of the monopoly both in California and Oregon, to libel Mr Adams foully. Not satisfied with this, they imported the vilest of these libels to Portland, and employed their tools to peddle them around the city, while the aforementioned ponderous attorney read them with his peculiar nasal intonations, and in his Yankee drawl, to congenial circles. And then for this great attorney (great according to the scale avoirdupois), to get up in Court and talk about teaching the press "good manners and common decency!" And for Burns' lacquey publisher, who has slandered Collector Adams as far as insinuation can go, and to the full extent of the purchase there is in money to do likewise! A pretty trio, indeed, to prate about "venal motives." Out upon such arrant hypocrisy

> "In fact [the chivalry] begged all over the South for four or five years but during the whole time not one of them ever had an opportunity to beg the Oregonian or any of its 'mongrel' editors."—Herald

But they did beg of such as the Herald editor "Help Cassius or I sink!" "If you mean what you say, help us quick!" "If you are going to get up a counter revolution in the North, why don't you precipitate it?" "You are now our only hope." These were the begging words that went up from traitor throats to the party in the North to which the Herald editor belonged, and such men promised help and then sneaked out of it—a good many of them into Canada.

Ministerial Interview—The French Soldiers to be Withdrawn.

The French Minister had an interview with the Secretary of State yesterday. It is said he presented the formal adhesion of the French Government to American principles of non-intervention as explained by the Secretary of State. The Emperor kindly and cordially replies to the United States, and agrees to withdraw his troops from Mexico in three detachments, one next November and the others in May and November, 1867. The full and final correspondence between the two Governments which relates to this subject, will be sent to the House this week

Colored People going South.

Yesterday 48 colored persons in jail, men and women boys and girls, with their own consent were placed en route for Louisiana under charge of officers of the Freedmen's Bureau. They were all charged with petit larceny. The District Attorney has entered a nole prosse in each case, on condition that the prisoners would go South. About 125 other colored persons left at the same time for the South where they are promised good wages

Important Constitutional Amendment Proposed.

CHICAGO, April 23 —The Reconstruction committee will report this week the following important proposition:

SECTION 1. That the Constitution be amended so as to provide that after the 4th of July, 1870, there shall be no discrimination in race or color in the elective franchise in any State

SEC 2 That until the 4th of March 1871, representation shall be apportioned on the basis of legal voters and after that period by population as now

SEC. 3 That from and after the adoption of this amendment, there shall not be any discrimination in civil rights.

SEC. 4 That no obligation incurred by the rebellion for slaves emancipated, ever be paid by the United States or any State.

To this is attached an enabling act to the effect that Southern States may be admitted in no way excepting on those terms, provided their Senators and Representatives can take the test oath. It further recommends Congress to pass a law, that those who were members of Congress or the Cabinet or Congress in 1860 and afterwards took part in the rebellion shall not be eligible to July 4th, 1876

NEW YORK, April 23.—The Tribune's correspondent says the reconstruction committee have not fully agreed on their report although it is believed they will be substantially as indicated in a previous dispatch. There is no doubt, however, but a final compromise plan will be embodied for careful action by Congress. It is probable the report will be accompanied by a bill or joint resolution making it impossible for the political power of the South to be controlled by those who were in active rebellion

From the United States and Mexico.

"NEW YORK, April 23 —The Paris correspondent of the London Post, says that the French Government has communicated its reason of evacuating Mexico, to Mr Bigelow, and as you are aware, Mr Seward has addressed to the Imperial Government a long dispatch, in which he thus sets forth the views of the Washington cabinet toward the Mexican empire:

The Washington Government witness with satisfaction the withdrawal of the army of a great European power from American soil. The United States Government has no intention of departing from its neutrality towards Mexico and when the French withdraw it will in any way modify its policy towards the new empire. The United States Government will not recognize the Empire Government of Mexico, nor enter into treaties with Mexico, except those required by commerce. So matters stand between the United States and Mexico

Maximilian is recruiting his volunteers in Germany and Belgium and expects to get home troops to replace the French before they have all embarked in November, 1867. It is an expensive affair, and will probably prove a heavy call on the Mexican exchequer. So far as France is concerned there is great attraction in thus delaying the final retirement of the French army

The Post's Washington special says Mr Seward has sent ample instructions to Mr Motley, our minister to Vienna, in reference to Austrian volunteers for Maximilian, and a strong protest against such action will be made

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON April 20 —The Senate passed the bill extending the time for the completion of the first 20 miles of the Western Pacific Railroad, also passed a joint resolution to present gold medals to Captain Creighton of the ship Three Bells, Captain Low of the barque Kenilly and Captain Sanford of the ship Antarctic for gallant conduct in rescuing five hundred Americans from the wreck of the steamship San Juan, 50,000 dollars being appropriated in addition for distribution among the officers and crew

The Senate passed the habeas corpus act. It is intended to protect federal officers against vexatious arrests and prosecutions for acts done during the war. An amendment offered yesterday by Mr Edwards of Vermont limiting the operation to States which were in open rebellion was rejected; ayes 10 noes 29. During the debate Cowan said he thought it was about time the Senate be freed from the tyranny of the majority and the whip crack over their heads. Mr Howe offered an amendment which was agreed to, making it the duty of the Attorney General to assist attorneys to defend officers prosecuted under the bill. Other important amendments were adopted and the bill goes back to the House. The Senate adjourned to Monday. The House set the day on Schenck's Army Bill, and has thus far considered 15 of the 45 sections. On the section relating to the Judge Advocates Bureau Garfield moved to strike out the clause giving that bureau authority to revise and reverse proceedings of military commissions, but the motion was defeated, ayes 34; nays 74

CHICAGO, April 21 —A joint resolution which passed the Senate on Tuesday and the House on Thursday, appropriates 121,765 dollars to feed Indians who will assemble between the 25th of May and the 5th of July at forts Laramie Sully Rice Union and Berthold at each more than 2000 to conclude treaties of peace. The Indians were invited to assemble by the War Department at which discovers at the last moment that it has no supplies adequate to feed them

During the Senate debate the whole Indian policy was discussed at great length. Mr Sherman [illegible] and said it was a farce to make treaties with these people who after being fed a few weeks and receiving presents would sign anything they knew and cared not what and take the tomahawk [illegible] He said it was ridiculous to bring these treaties [illegible] as high as negotiation with foreign [illegible] It was notorious that several treaties with the Indians were some years ago ratified [illegible] and being then found to involve large sums of money were suspended leading to an Indian war. Mr Doolittle said the result of his experience last year convinced him that we had better make treaties than fight the Indians. Our war with the Indians has cost $40,000,000. In this particular case the faith of the Government was pledged. Mr Sherman thought the facts disclosed showed clearly that the Indian Bureau ought to be transferred to the War Department. Mr Doolittle said that very proposition was being considered in the committee. Mr Sherman hoped the committee would go further and report some means by which the Indians might be [illegible] government until they should be absorbed in the general population

Telegraphic Communication with Victoria

VICTORIA, April 24 9 30 P M —The last stretch of the telegraph cable which connects this island with the main land was safely landed at Ladd's Bay San Juan Island at 10 o'clock this afternoon. Signals were found to be perfect and direct communication was had with Portland and New Westminster after which Victoria was connected and the announcement was received amid the roaring of cannon, tolling of bells and the heartfelt cheers of a grateful people. H M gunboat Forward was telegraphed as having passed San Juan Island at 2 o'clock p m headed for Esquimalt with the cable party on board. At 4 o'clock p m a delegation of our citizens left for Esquimalt to escort the the telegraph engineers, Messrs Haines and Vandenburgh and the officers of the Forward to the city, but owing to a strong gale blowing with heavy seas, the gunboat could not land here and will probably arrive to-morrow

FIGHTING AT THE DALLES.—We have received letters and [illegible] in comments from various sources and [illegible] of the ruffianism of A. M. Baron as displayed in the 14th in this city. A letter from the Dalles written by an esteemed citizen of that place, after referring in rather plain language to the arrant cowardice of the Daily Capitals style, thus speaks of the opposition: "As to the opposition movement, I consider it one of the most fortunate occurrences that could have taken place. The argument that reduced passenger fares induces mining, [illegible] to go to San Francisco for supplies, is of but little force, for, if it is inexpensive to go to San Francisco it is equally so to return to Portland, and after the interior merchant gets there and finds he can do as well at Portland, he returns and buys at that point. If he can do better at San Francisco the increase of passenger fares would hardly keep him from going there. But the principal benefit from opposition is the bringing in an increase of population, which is the first great need—in fact the great need of this country. This advantage counterbalances all other considerations. With the increase of population comes the demand for your Willamette valley produce. Unless the population is largely increased in the mining districts, the agricultural lands adjacent to them will suffice to supply the demand, but with 200,000 people in the Columbia Basin, a large portion of the supplies would forever have to be brought from the richer lands west of the Cascade range. The advantage of having a large proportion of consumers of the products of the soil, over the temporary advantage of having the exclusive trade to the mines in manufactured articles is obvious. In one case, the community gets the larger portion of the proceeds as profits, and the money is distributed to the whole State, to be again returned to the Metropolis, while in the other, the profits are necessarily small, and the [illegible]turer receives the balance, and the money is sent out of the country. Our mines though rich would not without the aid of low tariffs and passenger fares, be sufficient to stimulate public improvements, and afford the means of stocking our country with live stock and at[illegible] an increase of population, to finally sustain a large commerce, and the agriculture of the country until an outlet for the products of the Willamette valley can be discovered and turned to account. Again the movement of population by the opposition, induces thitherward numbers of people, who, but for that circumstance, would have gone by some other route to a destination where they will be in no wise connected with this section [illegible], but, in coming through here, they distribute [illegible] money essential to secure transit and supplies [illegible], and give prominence to the country elsewhere [illegible] the relation of their impressions about it [illegible]way. This is an important consideration, and [illegible] overlooked."

[illegible] OPEN TO VICTORIA.—The last section of the [illegible] cable between Victoria and the mainland was [illegible] laid yesterday afternoon and communication [illegible] 4:45 P. M. Messages of congratulation on the [illegible] of establishing this new line between the United [illegible] and the British Possessions were sent by the Governor of Vancouver Island to the President of the United [illegible], the Mayor of Portland, San Francisco, and other [illegible]. This is the longest sub-marine cable in [illegible], and was laid without a single accident or detention [illegible] R. R. Haines, Assistant Superintendent of [illegible] State Telegraph Company. The following were transmitted to and from Portland:

VICTORIA, April 24th, 1866.

[illegible] Failing, Mayor of Portland.—The Mayor of [illegible] gratulates the Mayor of Portland on the completion [illegible] enterprise to-day to foster our commerce and [illegible] good will of the people.

LUMDEN FRANKLIN, Mayor.

PORTLAND, April 24th, 1866.

[illegible] Franklin, Mayor of Victoria, V. I.—I [illegible] the receipt of your telegram, and in behalf [illegible] of Portland heartily reciprocate the sentiments [illegible]. We hail the completion of this [illegible] as a harbinger of more intimate commercial intercourse, and a guarantee of enduring friendship.

HENRY FAILING, Mayor.

VICTORIA, April 24, 1866.

[illegible] The press of Victoria offer their congratulations on the completion of telegraphic communication between the two cities.

Daily Evening Post.

PORTLAND, April 24, 1866.

To the Press of Victoria. We in turn tender our congratulations on the opening of direct telegraphic communication between Portland and Victoria.

DAILY MORNING OREGONIAN.

[illegible] COURT.—Two cases were tried before Recorder [illegible] yesterday, of a very serious nature, equal [illegible], in each of which the principals were [illegible] the public should have a better call[illegible] who were fortunately discharged, as [illegible] matter to convict them in the [illegible], but from the fact that they are keeping [illegible] and liable to suspicion, and possibly guilty [illegible] charged. If the true facts were known, [illegible] yesterday will lessen them in the eyes [illegible], and add another step in their course [illegible]. One of the young men was accused [illegible] a watch, valued at $200, from a drunken man; [illegible] two were charged with knocking down and [illegible] another man, who was also drunk.

[illegible] VAN CLEVE.—The Copperheads of Clackamas [illegible] nominated a person name Van Cleve for Representative to the Legislature, and as there is a person of [illegible] name, a printer in this office, formerly proprietor of the Evening Tribune, in Portland, some contend that it is him upon whom the "Democracy" have based their hopes. The Clackamas Van Cleve we are unacquainted with, but as to Capt. Doll. Van Cleve of this city, we can state as did Gov. Gibbs with reference to [illegible], that he was not of the army of observers [illegible], but one of the doers of the work in the late [illegible] for liberty, and may to-day be found on the right side of the Union question.

[illegible] MATCHES.—The German matches which [illegible] such common use on the Pacific coast for [illegible] are very often the cause of much pain to persons [illegible] them. A few months ago, a gentleman of our [illegible] came very near losing his left hand, on account of a burn from the phosphorus bulb, so liable to [illegible] off on igniting it, and yesterday we observed [illegible] on Front street with an eye bandaged, [illegible] been injured by a burn of a similar nature, the [illegible] having flew into his face and burned the corner of his eye badly, sticking fast to the flesh until picked out. People who prefer using the imported article should be [illegible] about it.

[illegible] OF THE ORIFLAMME.—The steamship Orizaba left this port last evening for San Francisco, taking the [illegible] cargo: 1,800 boxes of apples; 160 hides; 3 bales [illegible]; 12 pkgs furniture; 25 rolls of leather; 162 [illegible]; 66 cases and bales merchandise; 40 boxes [illegible] and Tr[illegible] was shipped by parties as follows:

Wells, Fargo & Co	$57,000
Ladd & Tilton	50,000
[illegible] legal tenders	50,000
[illegible] with Bros	8,000
Other parties	3,000

Total coin, $108,000, L. T., $30,000......$138,000

TAX SALES.—In consequence of the laws of Oregon making a tax title deed valid, no risk can be taken by the [illegible] of real estate at a sale of delinquent tax [illegible]. Marshal Hoyt will sell about 100 city lots to-day for taxes, amounting in the aggregate to but little more than $600. This will afford those who may desire [illegible] a good opportunity to invest. There must be some protection for those who pay taxes, against the faults of those who do not, and the action of the late Legislature in this matter, was a nice one indeed.

[illegible] BEEN ATTENDED TO.—From a private letter [illegible] Idaho City, April 10th, to L. Fleischner & Co. of [illegible], received last evening, we learn that the Vigilantes [illegible] have hung two more men at Boise City on [illegible] occasion, Updyke, Sheriff of Ada county, and a [illegible] Dickerson. The letter states that perhaps [illegible] has been hung by the time it was written.

[illegible] SALMON.—The real simon pure Chinook salmon, fresh from old Pacific, may be obtained of Mark [illegible] this morning, one door south of Alder street, on [illegible]. He received a beautiful lot by steamer last night, [illegible] of which he has our thanks.

[illegible] ARRIVAL.—The steamer Continental arrived [illegible] yesterday afternoon with Mercer's female brigade. She was lying at the Folsom street wharf, and was being visited by hundreds of people, but would probably leave for the north in a day or two.

[illegible] PAPER.—We are informed that our German [illegible] are about arranging for the publication of [illegible] paper in this city. It will be of the true style [illegible] would pay in Portland.

THE SIERRA NEVADA.—The steamer Sierra Nevada, we [illegible], will leave San Francisco for Portland to-day.

THE MONTANA.—This favorite vessel will leave our port [illegible], as advertised, for San Francisco.

A speaker at the Fenian meeting at Burlington, Vt., said the number of men who had undertaken to liberate Ireland is three hundred and twenty five thousand. He also suggested that the Sepoys are not subdued, and when the Irish rise they may also spring up to avenge their wrongs.

The long search for the murderer of the Joyce children in the woods near West Roxbury, Mass on the 12th of June last, has resulted in his probable discovery in the person of a convict sent to the State Prison for burglary at Worcester soon after the murder.

FACIAL EXPRESSION.—ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL, at their Gallery, 80 First Street can show you now taking the most superb CARD PICTURES PHOTOGRAPHS, AMBROTYPES MELAINOTYPES &c. MR. DESMOND is the Operator at this Establishment and stands without a rival here or elsewhere.

NOTICE.—C H MACK has removed his Dental Office to Washington Street, corner of Front in Parrish's Block.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere, and HODGE & CALEF, 97, Front St.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 624 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in Bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

M. HOWARD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE,

315 Montgomery St., San Francisco.

THE ABOVE PREPARATION, WHICH HAS BEEN recently discovered and patented, is purely a vegetable Extract.

The undersigned are fully aware of the many unsatisfactory and useless preparations for restoring hair that have been introduced to the public, and how little confidence is to be placed in any pretensions to restoring the hair to bald heads, but having tried MR. HOWARD'S PREPARATION, we are able to state that it not only prevents the hair from falling out but absolutely reproduces it, and that we now have good suits of hair growing, where we were entirely bald. Therefore, as a matter of justice to Mr. Howard, and of consolation to bald heads, we tender him this testimonial. Mr. H. keeps the article for sale in bottles with directions for its use, or applies it himself as may be desired.

DATES TO APRIL 20.

Cholera in Portland, Maine.

PORTLAND, ME., April 18.—A man died in this city of cholera this morning. He is said to be one of those who escaped from the steamer England.

Another Cholera Infected Ship.

NEW YORK, April 18.—April 1. The British steamship Virginia, from Liverpool April 4th, with 1043 passengers. She had 38 deaths on the passage. The disease is said to be similar to that with which the steamship England is infected. The Virginia is at quarantine, each stage twenty miles below the city.

Minister to the Sandwich Islands.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Gen. Edward McCook, to-day received his commission as Minister to the Sandwich Islands. Gen. Patrick E. Connor, has been brevetted Major General.

Reward for Capture of the Assassins.

Of the reward for the capture of Atzerodt, Sergeant Einnel, of the 15th Delaware Cavalry, received $10,000. Ten persons received $2,000 each. Of the $10,000 reward for the arrest of Payne, Maj. H. W. Smith received $2,500 and the balance is distributed among 7 others.

Peace with Indians on the Plains.

The Indian Bureau has received a letter from Col. Wynkoop dated Fort Larned, April 10th, saying "I have got all the hostile bands in an Indian country them to be at peace. Consequently the different routes of travel across the Plains are perfectly safe. The effect is already plainly visible from the fact that the mail is traveling without an escort, and small parties of emigrants with freight are pushing over their course in perfect safety, without anticipation of any danger from Indians. I have visited the interior camps without an escort, and to all appearance they are as peaceably disposed as I ever knew them to be prior to the opening of hostilities."

Seizure of a Blockade Runner.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The Treasury Department has seized the steamer Coquette, lying at Baltimore, upon information that she was built at Glasgow, under contract for blockade running. She is valued at $150,000, and is claimed as private property, but the Government will proceed against her for confiscation according to law.

Stephens before the Reconstruction Committee.

CHICAGO, April 20.—The testimony of A. H. Stephens before the reconstruction committee fills nearly a page of the New York papers and provokes most decided comment. The Times says: True, Stephens says that his opinions and the opinions of the South generally on the abstract question of State sovereignty have not undergone much change. Why should they? The sword cannot cut down opinions, though it prevents their application. It is enough for the present purpose and for the country that the subject emerges from the struggle convinced that its interests are to be found in hearty and unwavering acknowledgment of the Union society, adapting its relations to the changes produced by the abolition of slavery, and on these points we consider Stephens' exposition satisfactory. Nor can we trace any sign of inherent hostility to the negro in other than civil relations. Individually Stephens is reported to have said, I should not be opposed to a proper system of extending a limited suffrage to this class of our population. Beyond this, what could we of New York ask? He is averse, moreover, to any action upon the subject except by the Southern States themselves. In my judgment, it is a matter that belongs of constitutional right to the States to regulate exclusively each for itself. Is there anything damaging to the South then, in Stephens' declaration that it will not yield to negro suffrage or other amendments of the constitution as conditions precedent to re-admission to Congress. We think not. Stephens says: They, the people, think they have done everything that was essential and proper, and my judgment is that they would not be willing to do anything further as a condition precedent. They would simply remain quiet and passive. The Times concludes in these sentences: Should the North continue to insist upon conditions which excludes the South from Congress the Southern States would then, says Stephens, present themselves as willing for immediate Union under the constitution, while the Northern States would be opposed to it. The former disunionists would thereby become Unionists, and former Unionists changed to practical disunionists. The practical dilemma is worth thinking about.

The Evening Post says if Stephens thinks the States lost none of their rights by rebellion it is most true; but rebels in them lost all of their rights. We did not choose to execute the laws upon Stephens and his confederate traitors. We preferred mercy to justice, but surely it is astonishing impudence in men so treated to turn round and teach us upon rights. Their right is to be hanged, and because we very seriously believe hanging a very poor use to make of so large a number of men, therefore they are not to forget that they are criminals, as Stephens now does in lecturing loyal and patriotic men, showing them their reconstructional duties.

The Tribune says: Stephens tells us the people have attained a very decided conviction that secession is impolitic. They have good reason for that conclusion, but how impolitic? Clearly because of their crushing defeat. But suppose the whirling of time should present totally new conditions wherein secession might be attempted afresh without a probability of failure. What then? It is Stephens, very decided conviction that the southern people were entitled from the moment the rebellion was put down to come right back without conditions or restrictions, and to Congress and share fully and equally in the government of the country. He thinks it was for that the loyalists were fighting, wherein they don't agree (?). He says he doubts the legal validity of acts of Congress passed in the absence of representatives from the seceded States. Finally, Stephens thinks slavery is dead only because the former slave States have abolished it." The Tribune concludes: "Stephens' testimony damages the prospects of early re-admission of the Southern States."

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The Senate passed the joint resolution appropriating $177,085 for the fulfillment of certain treaties with Indian tribes on the upper Missouri and upper Platte. The Senate debated the bill protecting Union officers against vexatious prosecution for acts during the war. Edmunds of Vermont, offered an amendment, providing that the act should not apply in States not declared to be in rebellion. Clark of New Hampshire, hoped the amendment would not prevail, as it would exempt Kentucky, where over 3,000 such suits were pending. Conness of California, also opposed the amendment, saying that as the rebels are being pardoned why not extend an amnesty also to Union officers.

The World says: Fair minds will feel satisfaction in the statements of Stephens. The Southern people have not, indeed, made formal renunciation of the right of secession as an abstract political dogma, but they have ceased to talk about it, and regard it as practically obsolete. With regard to the emancipated negroes, they are disposed to treat them with justice, voluntarily conceding to them all civil rights and perfect equality before the law. If any Southern State shall treat them with injustice or inhumanity, they can go as freedmen wherever they please, and they will please to go where they are best treated. Southern lands are of no avail without labor to cultivate them. No State can afford to see its negroes emigrating to States which bid for their labor by better treatment.

The News calls Stephens' testimony our vindication, and says he might have gone further and said these people believe they have done too much, in view of the heartless arrogance with which their [illegible] acts, too [illegible] to a return of reciprocal kind impulses have been received.

Sensational News Contradicted.

NEW YORK, April 20.—The Tribune's Eastport, Me., special dispatch says there is no trouble. Hardly even, excitement on the border, and that the Herald's special dispatch concerning the Fenian raids, capture of an English flag and a mutiny among British troops and sailors is purely sensational.

The presence of General Meade effectually exploded the bubble. The whole thing was managed in aid of the Confederation scheme.

Bounty Jumping Frauds.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—A voluminous report to the Secretary of War on bounty jumping, shows that of 300,000 volunteers mustered into service, only 108,000 reached the field, although most all the others received bounties, and this wholesale system of fraud was perpetrated in nearly every State.

Payment of Prize Money Suspended.

All payments of naval prizes upon the lists from which no payments have yet been made, are suspended until a decision is given by the Supreme Court upon the question whether prize money does not belong to the government.

The House debated the bill increasing the regular army, but reached no important conclusion. The bill will occupy several days yet. The House Judiciary Committee have had a full consideration of the President's late Message and will report against any modification of the test oath, believing that there are plenty of men to hold office under it.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—McDougall of California having understood that a resolution would be offered for his expulsion from the Senate, for language used by him in debate on Monday, April 16th, promptly apologized to the Senate to-day and also to his colleague. He seemed to appreciate very fully the indecorum he had committed, judging from the manner and matter of his apology. His statement was accepted in the spirit in which it was tendered, and the matter ended.

The Senate briefly discussed the bill for the admission of Colorado, upon a motion to reconsider the former vote. The question was finally made the special order for next Tuesday, the 24th.

The House spent the entire day on the army bill, making slow progress. Price of Iowa, from the committee on the Pacific Railroad, reported back, with amendments, the Senate bill granting aid to a railroad from Folsom to Placerville, California.

The Rewards for the Capture of Jeff. Davis.

The reward of $10,000 for the capture of Jeff Davis has been divided among the 4th Michigan Cavalry on the same basis as the naval prizes. Col. Pritchard gets $1,000; the captains each, $749, the lieutenants each, $655, sergeant major $371, 1st sergeant $351, other sergeants $298, corporals $187, privates $166. The board says the 1st Wisconsin Cavalry rendered valuable service but are not entitled to share.

The case in which Judge Underwood of the United States Court at Alexandria lately declared that he could not issue a writ of habeas corpus came up yesterday before Attorney General Speed, who gave an opinion adverse to Judge Underwood's decision, whereupon the President to-day ordered the release of prisoners on a writ of habeas corpus.

A Speech by the President to a Colored Audience.

WASHINGTON, April 19th.—The freedmen's celebration of emancipation in the District of Columbia, took place to-day, having been postponed from Monday on account of the weather. Two regiments of colored troops and various Irish delegations joined in the procession, which after marching through the principal streets entered the White House grounds when President Johnson came out and addressed them, after three cheers, as follows:

"My colored friends, I thank you for this compliment you have paid in presenting yourselves before me on this your day of celebration, and I will remark in this connection, that I am satisfied the time will come and that, too, before a great while, when the colored people will find out who have selected them as a hobby and pretense by which they can be successful in obtaining and keeping power, and who have been their truest friends, and wanted them to participate in and enjoy the blessings of freedom. The time will come when they will know who contributed as much as any other man—who without being considered egotistical I may say, contributed more to promoting the national guarantee of the abolition of slavery in all the States, by the ratification of the amendment to the constitution of the United States, giving a national guarantee that slavery shall not be permitted to exist or be re-established in any State or in the jurisdiction of the United States. I know how easy a matter it is to prejudice your minds, and how easy it is to foster prejudice and unkind feeling. I care not that I have been engaged in a work in which my all has been imperiled. I was not engaged in it as a hobby nor did I treat colored men for sake of gaining power. I feel and I know that my efforts have contributed as much if not more in accomplishing this great national guarantee than those of any other living man in the United States. [Enthusiastic applause.] It is very easy for the colored men to have pretended friends in high places [illegible] who have never done their [illegible] and the only party and who never contributed a sixpence in furtherance of the great cause, while another has periled his all, everything dear to him and those whom he [illegible] and who live with him, and who now enjoy his property [illegible] his consent, and who now receive his assistant and [illegible]. Yet some assume to be who have never in any right [illegible] such great defenders of colored men. Then let me mingle with you in celebrating this day which is one of your freedom. I do it in sincerity and truth and trust in that that the blessings which have been conferred may be enjoyed and appreciated by you and that you may give them proper direction."

The bands then struck up a lively tune, meanwhile the President remained on the balcony and very many approached and shook hands with him. One thanked him for his advice, when the President replied: "Yes, my man, you will find out in the long run who is your friend and I have always tried to be such." To this the negro replied: "Excuse me Mr. President, but I hope you will do a little better by us hereafter than you have been doing."

The procession marched along Pennsylvania Avenue, and passing around the capitol, three of their cheers rent the air in compliment to the legislators of their friends. The members of both houses crowded the porticos as the procession passed on its return to Franklin Square. Senators Trumbull and Wilson and Maj. Gen. Howard made speeches. About 10,000 persons participated in the celebration.

European.

NEW YORK, April 19th.—The steamship Persia has arrived with dates to April 7th. Consols for money 86¾ to 86⅞ cents.

Austro-Prussian relations were much discussed. Prussia continues to hold an uncompromising attitude. The Emperor of Russia had sent two notes to the Sovereigns. It is reported tendering mediation. The minor German States were arming. Count Bismarck is said to have declared the pacific declarations of Count Karolyi on behalf of Austria insufficient, and that Prussia will continue her armament. According to another statement he had briefly replied to Karolyi's note, justifying the movements of Prussia on account of those of Austria, but repudiating any idea of attacking Austria.

The Prussian reply to the Austrian note created a very unfavorable impression in Vienna.

The Paris Moniteur confirms the statement that Baron Loillard's mission to Mexico was successful, and that arrangements for the return of French troops in three divisions, have been made. It is hoped that this arrangement will satisfy the Washington Government. A correspondent says that France intends to occupy Vera Cruz, Tampico and other principal ports as a guarantee for expenses of the expedition and security for the French commercial interests.

The reform agitation continued in England. The events of the week had been demonstrations at Liverpool in honor of Gladstone. There was a great banquet on one day and a mass meeting the next. The enthusiasm ran high for the reform measure. Gladstone made two brilliant speeches, emphatically declaring that the Government would stand or fall upon the question. He warmly eulogized America, and pointed to her exertions in the late war as proof of the benefits resulting from trust in the people, and commented that England should learn a lesson from it.

Bright addressed a large reform meeting at Rochdale on April 4th. He advocated the reform bill and strongly denounced the tory party. It is expected that the Government majority on the reform bill, will exceed 20.

The political excitement on the German question, runs high in Paris, and it is positively asserted that France is quietly getting an army of observation together and strengthening her garrisons.

The Paris Bourse is quiet. Rentes, 67f 60c.

Cyrus W. Field returns home by the steamer Persia.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

The French Defeat at Mazatlan.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—A French war vessel had arrived at Acapulco with full confirmation of the reported defeat of the French at Mazatlan, March 22d. The French admit the loss of two pieces. The Mexicans claim the capture of four. Corona got in the rear and demanded the capitulation of the entire force before opening fire. The French claim the greatest slaughter was made by two hundred Americans under Frank Doney. They say one American with a Henry's rifle was seen kill fifteen Frenchmen.

The South American War.

The Spanish frigate Blanco landed a large number of men after the defeat by the Allied fleet, while lying at anchor in one of the straits alongside Island Chiloe. The Chileans came down to shore in large force in the night and remained in ambush. When the Blanco's crew was mustered on deck in the morning they poured in a musketry fire at close range, making great slaughter. The Blanco's guns could not effect anything, and her boats which attempted to land were beaten off. The Spaniards had seized and condemned an English merchant steamer and an Italian vessel for coaling at Caronal. The American steamer Uncle Sam was also seized at Valparaiso for violating the blockade. Peru is pushing on preparations for active war against Spain.

Further from Mexico.

The Mexicans have advices via Acapulco of the defeat of Lozada by the Liberals after the defeat of the French. Mercantile houses have letters admitting the defeat of their forces, but saying that a second expedition was going out April 1st to co-operate with Lozada, and that he had defeated the Liberals at Acaponeta.

Attitude of the United States towards American Independent States.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23d, 9:30 P. M.—Nelson, ex-minister of the United States at Santiago, in taking leave of the President of the Republic remarked that it was the resolution of his government to prevent all undue influence or intervention on the part of European nations with the Independent States of the continent, pacifically if possible, by force if necessary.

Seizure of the John L. Stephens by Mexican Allies.

Arrived—Ship Fearless, from Boston, sides to Moulton; steamer John L. Stephens, from Mazatlan April 17th. On the down trip the Stephens had a large amount of forage for the French horses which are starving, and other supplies; also 500 stand of arms. Corona, aware in advance of the fact, sent Major Doney with a party of Liberals across from Altola to Cape St. Lucas, where they seized the steamer, took her to La Paz and unloaded the arms and supplies which they shipped immediately to Altola. They proposed at first to confiscate the steamer, arm her and sail her as a Liberal war steamer, but at length dismissed her on guarantee that she should carry no more contraband of war to the French.

The French defeat is confirmed. Lozada forces and the Liberals had an engagement in which both claim a victory, but Lozada retreated after the fight. The French moved east on the first of the first of the month to co-operate with him but returned without exchanging a shot.

Cholera—What Causes it.

This scourge which appears to have crossed the Atlantic on the steamship England, may reasonably be expected on this coast during the coming Summer. The better its character is understood and the nearer thorough the precautions taken against its introduction here, the better. Dr. Dixon of the Scalpel says of it:

Cholera is not produced by a vegetable fungus or moss; it originates in human filth. Wherever human beings congregate in close quarters and in vast numbers, in a confined atmosphere in this country, there either typhus fever, malignant dysentery or cholera infantum of our summers are produced. Asiatic cholera is produced by an animal germ. It came first to this country in a ship, in June, 1832. It first appeared in Quebec, passed to Montreal by the 14th, and was in New York on the 25th no doubt, however, it was conveyed in the bodies of travelers, for it can only be propagated in animal organism. That it is an animal germ we will not endeavor to show. First, it is not like yellow fever, destroyed by frost, it has proved very fatal in winter. The only animal, we have any reason to think, that dies from cholera is the hog, the hog cholera of the West is very fatal, the symptoms are similar to those of a man. Second—We never had Asiatic cholera here till 1832, although the same conditions essential to its propagation—dense population, confined air and filth—always existed, and always produced their appropriate results, typhus fever, dysentery and cholera infantum—but never Asiatic cholera.

Cholera is defective vitalization of the blood, or want of pure air, producing nutrition. This causes relaxation of the contractile powers of all the blood-vessels of the body. The entire tract of intestines opens its myriad blood-vessels, and all the albuminous or flesh-making material passes off from the bowels. It is rapid cholera in autumn, only it preys upon adults chiefly. Not a single case of cholera occurred on board the Atlanta in its spacious cabins during all the terrible death-scourging among the poor steerage passengers. What can be more convincing? There was filth and confined air—animal poison in its highest degree—depressing the aeration or life renovation of the blood, not producing typhus fever, but cholera. The solids of the human body are relaxed when the blood loses its life giving power, and animalcules can act readily, perhaps enter the blood-vessels themselves. These animalcules unquestionably could pass by the wind to the inhabitants of the spacious cabins in the posterior part of the vessel, but their blood vessels and nerves were in good order and kept the tissues tight enough to prevent the entrance of the exciting germs.

Without endorsing the medical theory of this writer, it is clear that there is a close relation between cholera and filth. It is well known that the disease is limited and controlled in some good degree by sanitary efforts. All undue excitements and alarms in time of cholera only cause it to rage with great fatality.

In 1849-9, when the scourge appeared in the principal cities of the Mississippi Valley, the population living upon filthy streets near rivers and low places reeking with garbage and ordure were swept away with terrible rapidity. While on streets kept carefully cleansed, and where other sanitary regulations were thoroughly observed, there was almost entire exemption.

NITRO-GLYCERINE.—Mr. Nielson, of the firm of Bandmann, Nielson & Co., agents for the nitro-glycerine or blasting oil, returned last evening from Dutch Flat, whither he went to make some experiments in blasting on the railroad track. Half a dozen blasts were made with most satisfactory results. One blast of twenty pounds threw out 500 tons of rock under circumstances in which, as the workman said, 200 pounds of powder in several separate blasts would have been required to do the same amount of execution. Half a dozen other trials produced a similar result. The nitro-glycerine can be handled with no risk, and can be used with less expense than powder in use of the smaller number of holes or blasts used, and therefore the introduction of the article may be a great benefit to California, where so much blasting is done and where miners wages are so high. A public trial will be made of the nitro-glycerine here near San Francisco, and due notice will be given so that all interested can see for themselves.—Alta Cal.

THE DEMOCRATS AND THE PRESIDENT.—The Norwich Bulletin sets off the delight of the democratic newspapers over the recent acts and words of the President in a manner no less true than comical:

"They wriggle and twist with delight. The Hartford Times, whose substance for the past five years has been on funeral baked meats, tosses round the arena in a perfect ecstacy of pleasure. It slaps the President on the back, calls him 'Glorious old Andy,' says he is a 'wall of strength against the assaults of disunionists,' calls the people to rally round him, and prophesies about him as though he was a long lost brother left in his infancy on a desolate island, but now discovered and recognized and identified by the wart on his elbow and the elegant voice he has for whisky. The Times acts like an elephant that's been taking chloroform. Who cares for broken crockery when fun like this is going on!"

"We do not wish to engender bad blood between the races."—Herald.

Then you have discarded one of the most time-honored usages of your party. Physiologists assert that mixing the races "engenders" the worst blood, yet Southern Democrats have persisted in that "engendering" practice for fifty years.—Albany Journal.

"THE PRESIDENT AND THE RADICALS."—Under this sort of heading the rebel sheets of the South keep up a constant croaking, predicting and hoping for an issue between the President and Congress, and predicting the certain triumph of the people, on the ground that the people are with him. They are exulting in the fact that he [illegible] against Congress, and Brownlow, and doing all they can to bring on a conflict. Meetings are being held all over the country, saying, "Let the struggle come, for however [illegible] the President will triumph, as the PEOPLE are with him." All of this is to be regretted, for the sake of the country first, and next for the sake of the President and his future usefulness. If the President will stand with the President in his policy, it is the Southern people, who fought four years to destroy the Government, and who clamored for the capture of the President, that they might have the pleasure of hanging him. And we are deceived in the President if he allows this party of traitors to create a quarrel between him and the great Union party that nominated him in the Baltimore Convention, and subsequently elected him to his present high position. The party denounced in Congress as radicals, abolitionists, and as a "faction," composed two thirds of both houses and they are the representatives of large majorities in all the loyal States who will stand by them, even in a conflict with the President and the new born friends, galvanized loyalists and unwashed patriots, who now crowd out from the White House all the tried loyalists of the country. Those who labor to bring on a conflict between the President and Congress are not the friends of either as the future will prove. As for the people, over old plant themselves firmly on any platform, it is on the platform now occupied by the so called radicals, or "faction," constituting the majority in the present Congress. We go with that "faction" of radicals, we approve their principles and policies, and, live or die, sink or swim, survive or perish, we risk our life, our fortune, and our sacred honor on board of that ship. It is a bark sailing under the banner of beauty and glory, the stars and stripes of our country—a banner that the conflicts of the last eighty years have never seen conquered. Always victorious, because always in the right, it is not to be disgraced by the combined assaults of home traitors or malignant foreign foes.—Knoxville (Tenn.) Whig.

The rebel General D. H. Hill, who did as much as any other man to drag the rebel States into rebellion is about to publish a monthly magazine at Charlotte, North Carolina. He is a man of ability, and has some reputation as an author.

The man who contemplated the assassination of Governor Brownlow, of Tennessee, has been arrested at Granada, Mississippi, and ordered to Nashville for trial before a Military Commission.

SOMETHING NEW AND NOVEL.—A PATENT APPLIED FOR.—Mr. Hennes has invented an article by which he can take any number of Head Pictures on the same plate without the subject getting up from the chair; can get different positions of the face and all sizes of heads can put a half dozen heads on the space of a half dollar; can put a whole family of heads on a common sized card, and will sell pictures cheaper than any other Gallery on this coast. Has the process for taking the new and beautiful style picture called the Porcelain or Sun Pearl, so much talked of in San Francisco, also has engaged a man from that place who has been making those pictures in San Francisco.

Mr. H. is now prepared to do as good work and in as great variety of style as any Gallery in Portland. Orders for full portrait size of photograph will be promptly attended to. ap15d1ptf

The Remedy for Curing
CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,
Asthma, Croup,
Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.
ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.
Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

DR. CHAS. H. TOZER'S
PRIVATE MEDICAL INSTITUTE,
N. E. Cor. Jackson and Kearney Sts.,
SAN FRANCISCO.
THE GREAT ERADICATOR OF SPECIAL COMPLAINTS, FORMERLY OF LOCKE HOSPITAL, LONDON, EIGHT YEARS IN SACRAMENTO, AND THE LAST THREE YEARS IN SAN FRANCISCO.
DR. TOZER'S
Experience is of forty years standing, and during that time has met with unparalleled success in the treatment of all those diseases generally known as Venereal or Chronic.
It is impossible here to mention all the diseases with which he is familiar, some, perhaps, will not be out of place. The most formidable, the most destructive to mankind is Self Abuse. The brain being the seat of the disease the whole system suffers in consequence. I will here enumerate some of the symptoms, so that the afflicted may be able to form an opinion in regard to their complaints, and seek advice in time, thereby saving themselves a world of suffering: Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory, Pain in the Limbs and Back, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling of the Limbs, Headache, Aversion to Genial Society, especially that of females. There are a great many more, but these are sufficient, and should you be suffering from any of them, consult DR. TOZER, and he will cure you in a short time without any interruption in your business—or state your case by letter, and there will be no occasion for your calling at the office.
Stricture of the Urethra
Is another formidable enemy to health. Send for my circulars on that disease, and inform yourself of its terrible results. The worst cases cured in a few [illegible]
Venereal Diseases
In all their various forms, either Primary, Secondary or Hereditary, completely eradicated from the system, the constitution being restored to perfect health, so there will be no danger of handing down to your children that terrible disease known as Scrofula.
Syphilitic Disease
As it presents itself on this coast, is of a more malignant character than that seen in the Atlantic States, arising from the fact of its being a compound of the Chinese and Sandwich Island disease. Those of you who have visited the two latter countries no doubt have seen the dreadful effects of it on both the native and foreign population. It requires altogether different treatment.
The Old Formulas
Of Ricord, Actel and Bostwick are of little account except to dry up the disease on the surface, leaving the poison in the blood, which, sooner or later, will show itself as a secondary disease in an aggravated form. These facts I have learned by experience, and think I can say without boasting that I have seen more of these diseases than any other physician in [illegible] dating as it does from 1849. It becomes you to think well, before you employ a physician. Who is the proper one to consult—an old [illegible] one or one who has recently settled among [illegible]
